WHO WE ARE

We are a member-driven non-profit driving sustainable and regenerative design, construction, and operation of the built environment.

Our members are the leaders & aspiring leaders in the green building industry.

WHO YOU ARE

A leader or aspiring leader advancing the sustainability of the built environment.

Your employees are seeking ways to keep up with and shape the rapidly changing field of green building design, construction, and operations.

WHAT WE DO

We build community through topic-based roundtables, networking events, and green building celebrations.

We provide education through public and private trainings and informative events.

We propel the industry forward via thought leadership, vital research and tools, and connecting people to resources.

WHAT YOU DO

You forge and implement market transformation with innovative approaches to your part of the real estate value chain.

You serve your clients through top notch talent, knowledge, vision, and purpose.

You provide opportunities to your people for personal growth and professional development.

IT'S ABOUT THE PLUS

In order to meet the moment, Built Environment Plus evolved from being the USGBC MA chapter to developing strong relationships with other industry leaders like ILFI, PHIUS, PHI, IWBI, and others. For us, the plus represents relationship, possibility, and a community far greater than the sum of its parts.

The moment we're in is bursting with potential and we are excited to give you this comprehensive look at the opportunities to engage and support our mighty community of green building practitioners, advisors, decision-makers, and influencers. Choose from one of the four categories below or blend them together to make a package. Join your leadership with this community's commitment for positive transformational change.

BE+ Community Stewardship

ANNUAL

Our communities are the heart of the organization.

BE+ convenes professionals around topics of interest determined by our members. These communities host regular roundtables that bring together industry leaders and aspiring leaders. The roundtables serve to connect people, share successes, and overcome obstacles.

In addition to roundtables, the communities host social events and organize informative events to educate the broader AEC industry throughout the year. As well, the communities inform BE+'s robust educational training curriculum. Each community aligns with one of BE+'s premier annual events.

The current BE+ Communities include: Carbon & Energy | Decarbonize Existing Buildings Alliance | Emerging Professionals | Health & Wellness | Living Future | Women in Green

BE+ Community Stewardship

ANNUAL

Support our thriving topic communities by becoming a Community Steward. Stewardship includes sponsorship of the Community's associated Premier Event. All stewardship levels include logo placement at all Community hosted events, a linked logo on the Community's website, roundtable access for your employees, and contact information for other stewards. Community Stewardship is discounted 50% for Company Members.

BE+ Individual Membership

ANNUAL

Built Environment Plus, formerly known as the USGBC Massachusetts Chapter, is a membership-based community advocating for green buildings at the state and local level. Built Environment Plus provides green building education, networking, advocacy and leadership opportunities for the sustainable building practitioner community and beyond. Our members support our close-knit community of passionate practitioners.

Join us in transforming the built environment to sustainable design practices. Benefits for all membership types are the same with a few exceptions, and we offer a variety of discounts to be as inclusive as possible. Please note membership with USGBC National is not membership with Built Environment Plus.

Individual Membership Benefits

- 15% discount on Built Environment Plus events
 - *Does not include a few partnered events
 - *Certain memberships have larger discounts
- Free access to Community Roundtables

Exclusive Member Privileges

- Voting in Board Election
- Voting on Key Decisions
- Eligible for Board Positions
- Input into BE+ Priority Items
- Annual General Meeting

With the multiple ways to support and engage within the BE+ community, you can go even further by customizing how and where within BE+ you make your impact as to best match the current focus, goals, and values of your company.

We encourage this path as the best way to maximize the value for both you and the BE+ community. Depending on how you mix, match, and nest your support, you may find much lower costs compared to the full value you receive.

We have provided a few “Sample Packages” here to better illustrate the power of bundling.

$1,750 First-Year Sample Package ($5,000 Value)

With our 50% first-year discount, it can cost just $500 to join BE+ as an Advocate-level member, which includes 2 individual memberships for your employees. Since all BE+ Company Members receive a 50% discount on Community Stewardship, adding stewardship of the Carbon & Energy Community at the Bronze level gives you Bronze sponsorship of the BE+ Building Tech Forum for just $1250.

	LEVEL	COST	VALUE
Company Membership	Advocate	$500	$1,000
Community Stewardship	Bronze Carbon & Energy	$1,250	$2,500
